Dear John Edwards,

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION REF: FOI2020/00625

I write in connection with your request for information dated 28th May in which you seek access to the information stated:

This is a Freedom of Information Request for the number of occurrences in the Square Mile, from 1960 until the present, of amateur runners accidentally knocking non-runners while passing and causing sufficient injury or alarm that you're Officers become involved - and hence record the incident.

Please accept this letter as an acknowledgement of receipt of your request, which has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act). (FOIA)

DECISION

I have today decided to disclose the located information to you.

The City of London Police hold no information relevant to your request.

We do not have any reported incidents whereby a runner/jogger has caused injury to a pedestrian.

Please note we do not hold records for all offences going back to 1960 as we follow the Management of Policing Information in relation to retention of our police records.

In keeping with the Freedom of Information Act, we assume that all information can be released to the public unless it is exempt. In line with normal practice we are therefore releasing the information which you requested via the City of London Police website.

I hope that this information meets your requirements. I would like to assure you that we have provided you with all relevant information that the City of London Police holds.

The City of London Police is responsible for an extremely small part of London comprising of the financial square mile in the centre of the City. The resident population is also extremely small comprising of less than 9,000 individuals.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request or the decision which has been reached, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests must be submitted within two months of the date of this response and should be addressed to:

Freedom of Information
Information Management Services
Bishopsgate Police Station
182 Bishopsgate
EC2M 4NP
E-mail: foi@city-of-london.pnn.police.uk

Please mark your complaint clearly and remember to quote the reference number in all correspondence. You have the right to ask the Information Commissioner (ICO) to investigate any aspect of your complaint. However, please note that the ICO is likely to expect internal complaints procedures to have been exhausted before beginning his investigation.

Thank you for your interest in the City of London Police.

Yours sincerely
David Tustin
